

House Resolution No. 4749

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Logan Gail Willoughby, a delightful young lady residing in Gladstone, Missouri, who is to be commended for her contribution to the government of the state of Missouri; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby makes significant contributions to the youth group of Gracemor Christian Church, being active in Vacation Bible School, youth fellowships, Sunday School and youth music programs; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby invests significant time on her studies, achieving high grades on her report cards and required tests; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby maintains an active schedule due to her involvement in Girl Scouts, youth orchestra, volleyball, and many family journeys to Grandpa's country farm and Saratoga Springs, New York; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby loves to spend her free time listening to Radio Disney and her CD Collection, as well as interacting with her many special friends, including Ben, Alayna and Morgan; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby has been very instrumental in supporting her father during his endeavors on behalf of the people of Missouri as a State Representative by doing extra chores around the house, assisting her loving mother Judy in various ways and being understanding while her father was away for so many nights for so many years; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby was always on the mind of her father during his term in the Legislature, making the short trips to Jefferson City seem like traveling to a distant land; and

Whereas, Logan Willoughby, through her encouragement and understanding, allowed her father to fulfill a life-long dream of contributing to State Government, for which he will always be grateful:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in recognizing the special contribution by Logan Gail Willoughby to the State of Missouri, and applauding her exemplary sacrifice for the people of Missouri, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Logan Gail Willoughby.
